

MADAGASCAR ESSENCE

- Allows you to detach from mass consciousness and its predilections for disease.
- Helps you find the freedom to choose whatever you want to without conditioning.
- Creates a sacred inner space of peace, harmony and balance.
- Clears the lower three chakras enabling an easier transfer of energy to the higher chakras, thereby assisting you to become at one with your divine essence.
- Enables you to focus on essentials, make sense of your life and thus know exactly what to do.
- Removes alienation, not only from each other but also from animals and the land, replacing this with a connected gentleness and harmony.
- Activates the highest possibility of every aspect of you.

THE MADAGASCAR ESSENCE

The Madagascar Essence was prepared in the Ankarana Special Reserve, in the very north of the island. It is a stunningly beautiful and pristine location, one of Madagascar's jewels, and has an incredibly calm and peaceful energy. Madagascar separated from the African mainland 165 million years ago. Its isolation resulted in an explosion of very exotic, bizarre, endemic animals and plants including lemurs and chameleons.

Madagascar was only settled 2000 years ago by Malayan seafarers. It is a very lunar country and traditionally the people were very nocturnal. This may explain why, unlike so much of neighbouring Africa, there is gentleness and peacefulness in the people and the land. Madagascar's population of 20 million is comprised of 17 tribes. There exists between all tribes a harmony, tolerance and peaceful co-operation.

The Madagascar Essence embodies this aspect and helps you connect with gentleness and harmony to others, animals and the land. However its greatest healing gift is allowing you to detach from mass consciousness and its predilections for disease.

Much Love, Light and Respect

The most important healing quality of the Madagascar Essence is its potential for the eradication of disease and the removal of limiting beliefs around our health and wellbeing that we absorb from mass consciousness. Examples of this is the conditioning and belief that as we get older our minds and bodies will deteriorate and that we only have 70 years of life, the three score and ten syndrome. These have become concrete limitations firmly embedded in mass consciousness. Humanity has forgotten, and needs to be reminded, that living 70 years is only half of man's natural life cycle.

Everyone is influenced by and part of mass consciousness as soon as they incarnate. Disease, whether physical, emotional or mental, occurs as a result of incarnating into the mass consciousness of humanity. Our thoughts, emotional responses and beliefs, all of which can create disease, are primarily coming from and/or greatly influenced by our connection to mass consciousness.

Humanity veered away from the original blueprint of being in balance and harmony with nature, animals and other people, and instead created disease, alienation, mass consciousness and being out-of-balance.

There are many methods of healing specific illnesses, but before any method can be totally successful there has to be the eradication of the predilection for disease. The Madagascar Essence will not cure every disease; it is curing the predilection for disease. You would then use another remedy for whatever the specific energetic situation is that needs rebalancing or realigning.

If a person has removed themselves from the predilection for illness, they can put themselves right back into it if they are involved with an organisation, philosophy or religion which is full of rigid dogma that tells them how to think and behave, and discourages questioning, learning and exploration.

Removing the predilection for disease creates a sacred inner space of peace, harmony and balance, giving you a perfect state of alignment from which all things are possible so you can choose whatever you want to, without conditioning. This removal clears the lower three chakras enabling an easier transfer of energy to the higher chakras. This will assist you to become at one with your divine essence and activate the highest possibility of every aspect of you.

Preparation: This Essence is available in Stock strength. To prepare a dose bottle add 7 drops to a bottle up to 15ml containing 1/3 brandy and 2/3 purified water.

Dosage: 7 drops of the dose bottle are taken under the tongue on rising and retiring, usually for at least 2 weeks. We recommend taking the Essence on its own, not mixing it with other Essences.
